"Conditions" means the standard terms and conditions of sale set out in this document and (unless the context otherwise requires) includes any special terms and conditions agree in writing between the buyer and the seller.

"Contract" means the contract for the purchase and the sale of the goods.

"Writing" includes telex, cable, facsimile, air transmission, e-mail and comparable means of communication.

B. Any reference in these conditions to any provision of a statute shall be construed as a reference to that provision as amended re-enacted or extended at the relevant time.

C. The headings in these conditions are for convenience only and shall not affect their interpretation.

2. Basis of the sale

A. The seller shall sell and the buyer shall purchase the goods in accordance with any written or oral quotation of the seller, which is accepted by the buyer or any written or oral order of the buyer which is accepted by the seller - subject in either case to these conditions, which shall govern the contract to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions.

B. No variation to these conditions shall be binding unless agreed in writing between the authorized representatives of the buyer and the seller.

C. The sellers employees or agent are not authorized to make any representations concerning the goods unless confirmed by the seller in writing. In entering into the contract the buyer acknowledges that it does not rely on and waives any claim for breach of any such representations which are not so confirmed.

D. Any advice or recommendation given by the seller or its employees or agents to the buyer or its employees or agents as to the storage application or use of the goods which is not confirmed in writing by the seller is followed or or acted upon entirely at the buyers own risk and accordingly the seller shall not be liable for any such advice or recommendation which is not so confirmed.

E. Any typographical, clerical or other error or emmision in any sales literature, quotation price-list acceptance of offer invoice or other document or information issued by the seller shall be subject to correction without any liability on the part of the seller.

3.Orders and Specifications

A. The buyer shall be responsible to the seller for ensuring the accuracy of the terms of any order (including any applicable specificatio) submitted to the buyer and for giving the seller any necessary information relating to the goods within a sufficient time to enable the seller to perform the contract in accordance with its terms.

B. The quantity, quality and description of and any specification for the goods shall be those set out in the sellers quotation (if accepted by the buyer) or the buyers order (if accepted by the seller)

C. If the goods are to be manufactured or any process is to be applied to the goods by the seller in accordance with a specification submitted by the buyer the buyer shall indemnify the seller against all loss, damage costs and expenses awarded against or incurred by the seller in connection with or paid or agreed to be paid by the seller in settlement of any claim for infringement of any patent copyright, design, trademark or other industrial or intellectual property rights of any other person which results from the sellers use of the buyers specification.

D. The seller reserves the right to make any changes in the specification of the goods which are required to conform with any applicable safety or other statutory requirements or where the goods are to be supplied to the sellers specification which do not materially affect their quality or performance.

E. No order which has been accepted by the seller may be cancelled by the buyer except with the agreement in writing of the seller and on terms that the buyer shall indemnify the seller in full against all loss (including loss of profits) costs (including the costs of all labour ad materials used) damages charges and expenses incurred by the seller as a result of cancellation.

4. Price of the goods.

A. the price of the goods shall be the sellers quoted price or where no price has been quoted (or a quoted price is no longer valid) the price listed in the sellers published price list current at the date of acceptance of the order. Where the goods are supplied for export from the UK the sellers published export price list shall apply. All prices quoted are valid for 30 days only or until earlier acceptance by the buyer after which time they may be altered by the seller without giving notice to the buyer.

B. The seller reserves the right by giving notice to the buyer at any time before delivery to increase the price of the goods to reflect any increase in the cost to the seller which is due to any factor beyond the control of the seller (such as without limitation any foreign exchange fluctuation, currency regulation, alteration of duties significant increase in the costs of labour materials or other costs of the manufacture) any change in delivery dates quantities or specifications for the goods which is requested by the buyer or any delay caused by any instructons of the buyer or failure of the buyer to give the seller adequate information or instructions.

C. Except as otherwise stated under the terms of any quotation or in any price list of the seller and unless otherwise agreed in writing between the buyer and the seller all prices are given by the seller on an ex works basis and where the seller agrees to deliver the goods otherwise than at the sellers premises the buyer shall be liable to pay the sellers charges for transport packaging and insurance.

D. The price is exclusive of any applicable Value added tax which the buyer shall be additionally liable to pay to the seller.

E. The cost of pallets and returnable containers will be charged to the buyer in addition to the price of the goods but full credit will be given to the buyer provided they are returned undamaged to the seller before the due payment date.

5. Terms of Payment

A. Subject to any special terms agreed in writing between the buyer and the seller the seller shall be entitled to invoice the buyer for the price of the goods on or at any time after delivery of the goods unless the goods are to be collected by the buyer or the buyer wrongfully fails to take delivery of the goods in which event the seller shall be entitled to invoice the buyer for the price at any time after the seller has notified the buyer that the goods are ready for collection or (as the case may be) the seller has tended delivery of the goods.

B. The buyer shall pay the price of the goods (less any discount to which the buyer is entitled but without any other deduction within 30 days from the end of the calendar month that the invoice for the goods is received by the buyer notwithstanding that delivery may not have taken place and the property in the goods has not passed to the buyer. The time of payment of the price shall be of the essence of the contract.

Receipts of payment will be issued only upon request.

C. If the buyer fails to make any payment on the due date then without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the seller the seller shall be entitled to : 1. Cancel the contract or suspend any further deliveries to the buyer.

2. Appropriate any payment made by the buyer to such of the goods (or the goods supplied under any other contract between the buyer and the seller) as the seller may think fit (notwithstanding any purported appropriation by the buyer) and

3. 6. Delivery

A. Delivery of the goods shall be made by the buyer collecting the goods at the sellers premises at any time after the seller has notified the buyer that the goods are ready for collection or if some other place for delivery is agreed by the seller, by the seller delivering the goods to that place.

B. Any dates quoted for delivery of the goods are approximate only and the seller shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of the goods howsoever caused. Time for delivery shall not be of the essence unless previously agreed by the seller in writing. The goods may be delivered by the seller in advance of the quoted delivery date upon giving reasonable notice to the buyer.

C. Where the goods are to be delivered in instalments each delivery shall constitute a separate contract and failure by the seller to deliver any one or more of the instalments in accordance with these conditions or any claim by the buyer in respect of any one or more instalments shall not entitle the buyer to treat the contract as a whole as repudiated.

D. If the seller fails to deliver the goods for any reason other than any cause beyond the seller's reasonable control or the buyer's fault and the seller is accordingly liable to the buyer the seller's liability shall be limited to the excess (if any) of the cost to the buyer (in the cheapest available market) of similar goods to replace those not delivered over the price of the goods.

E. If the buyer fails to take delivery of the goods or fails to give the seller adequate delivery instructions at the time stated for delivery (otherwise than by reason of any cause beyond the buyer's reasonable control or by reason of the seller's fault) Then without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to the seller the seller may:

1. Store the goods until actual delivery and charge the buyer for the reasonable cost including insurance of storage or
